ARE ALL EYES

DEFECTIVE?

Certain it is that many people experience no trouble with their eyes. Naturally a very large proportion of those who consult opticians or oculists have defective eyes, because the trouble they have leads them to the consultation.

There have been quite a number of people in to see me of late who have nothing at all the matter with their eyes.

If you have any doubt as to the condition of your eyes it will afford you a great deal of satisfaction to know positively. I shall be glad to tell you.

PRETTY SLICK JOB.

A Moore County Officer Fulfills His Mission.

Constable Dave Scott was at the depot today looking for an officer from Moore county who was supposed to have in his charge a colored woman and her child, but none of the trio were to be seen anywhere.

It seems that about four years ago a negro named Hadley abandoned his wife in Moore county and taking a little two-year-old girl went to the eastern part of the state. While there he accumulated some money and died, leaving $100 00 in the hands of a trustee for the maintenance of the child. A brother of the deceased lives in Greensboro and he in some way got the child and brought it here, evidently having an eye on that $400.

The mother was here about three weeks ago, but her brother-in-law refused to let her have the child. She returned home, secured the necessary legal instrument and armed with that and a deputy sheriff, she came up yesterday and this morning secured the child.

It was not plain sailing, however, as Hadley swore out a warrant for the arrest of the woman and placed it in the hands of Constable Scott, who was at the train today looking for his prey. The Moors county officer was seen to have a ticket to Raleigh and no one knew which way they were going. They were not at the depot and both the Sanford and Raleigh trains left without them. It is whispered that they hired a carriage and drove to either McLeansville or Pleasant Garden.

Captured a Barroom

Chief of Police Scott was out in Warnersville yesterday morning, and saw a party of men enter an old, deserted house. Looked rather suspicious, and he walked right in.

There he found Alfred Lane selling liquor. The whole outfit was captured and the chief came up street with his man, three jugs, one bottle, a funnel and a lantern. The only piece of furniture in the house was a small table. There was less than a gallon of whiskey left in the jugs. Alfred was selling by the drink and used the glasses.

The Chief received a message from the negro's wife this morning that if he would send the liquor back she didn't care what became of Alfred.

Tightness of Money.

The New York call loans have been as high as 20 per cent. during the past two weeks. The country is prosperous but the demand for money to respond to the expanded conditions of trade have caused these rates. We pay you 40 per cent. on your money. All buyers investing in clothing, hats, and furnishing goods will be rebated 40 per cent. In other words all goods will be sold at 60c. on the dollar. Fishblate-Katz Co., (Inc.)

Wanted Today.

By the Fishblate-Katz Co., (Inc.). 200 buyers to get a suit or an overcoat. We may have a fourth that number, but upon reflection among prospective buyers we can bring the number up to 200 if they will only realize that they can buy up-to-date clothing, hats and furnishing goods at 60c. on the $1 00 Fishblate-Katz Co., (Inc.)

First Presbyterian.

The pastor would remind all his members that this is our week of prayer for missions. There will be services in our church Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday nights at 7:30. The whole congregation is urged to come to these meetings, and to come praying.

It is the business policy of the Provident Savings to give the assured their insurance at the lowest possible cost to them, instead of building up a monumental surplus, in which they do not participate, but for the possible benefit of those who never contribute to it—The Journal of Commerce, New york City, August 21st, 1899

The results accomplished by the Provident Savings during the past two and a half years will bear comparison with any kindred institution. ### THE COLUMBIA IN THE LEAD

At 1:15 O'clock and Still Increasing It--Nearing the Stake Boat--Will Probably Finish.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

New York, Oct 16—Columbia crossed the line at 11:10:45, Shamrock one second later. Wind ten knots, course due east. Good prospects for finish. Columbia windward position when yachts lost in fog.

At 11:35: Shamrock sticks close to the Columbia's heels. Columbia is outpointing the Shamrock.

OFFICIAL START.

New York, Oct. 16—Shamrock, 11:01:03, Columbia, 11:01:4

At 12:12. Columbia half mile ahead and still increasing her lead. Wind about five miles hour.

At 12:55. Both gone, distant 13 miles. Columbia nearing stake boat.

At 1:15. Both boats nearing windward Mark, Columbia increasing her lead.

MR. GRAVES' PLAN.

The Raleigh Post Shows Its Impracticability.

Now it is Mr. John Temple Graves, of Georgia, who waltzes to the front with a proposition to concentrate all the negroes of this country on to one piece of territory, allow them to run it to suit themselves, and not permit them to live elsewhere in the United States.

According to this plan they would have to be established on territory without the jurisdiction of the United State, otherwise, how could their staying thereon be enforced? And if within the jurisdiction of the United States, by what hook or crook of legislation could this class of "citizens" be required to stay in one place, like "Indians not taxed," and not enjoy the privilege of travelling around having "festibuls," holding revivals, shooting craps and otherwise engaging in their usual pursuits of happiness?

All these propositions are but the empty vaporings of idle minds which are without practical employment. The negro is very useful where he is; only deprive him of the exercise of a power for which he is not fitted and which he has only used to the injury of himself as well as all others, and his days will be both peaceful and profitable right here in the South, among those who know and esteem him best, who are in truth his best friends.

THE PRESIDENT IN DAKOTA.

He Receives a Regiment Just Back From the Philippines.

Redfield, S D, Oct. 14—The presidential party arrived at Aberdeen this morning. After their arrival at the station it was learned that the First South Dakota Volunteers, just back from the Philippines, had not arrived. The president remained in the train until the regiment arrived. The president and party were then driven to the reviewing stand, where the president reviewed the parade in his honor. When the parade passed the First Dakota counter marched and was massed in front of the reviewing stand. President McKinley delivered an address praising the loyalty of the soldiers and advocating support of the flag. After a speech the officers of the regiment were presented to President McKinley. The soldiers cheered frantically while the reception was in progress. The presidential party was then driven to the train, which made short stops at Lake Preston, Redfield, Madison and other places in South Dakota, where the president made brief addresses in a similar way. The president received a hearty welcome at all these places and his remarks were enthusiastically applauded.

OLD NORTH STATE INDUSTRY

Carolina Building More Cotton Mills than Any of Her Sisters.

NATIONAL POLITICAL OUTLOOK.

Senator Jones Satisfied With It. Counts on New York and Ohio, Kentucky and Maryland.

Special to the TELEGRAM.

Washington, Oct. 16—A prominent Texas delegation arrived in the city the other day, and will be here for several days this week. Their mission in Washington is in connection with a suit which they have been advised will be brought in the United States Supreme Court by the State of Louisiana against the State of Texas. According to the information given by the gentlemen, the legal representative of Louisiana will come into the Supreme Court and ask the court for leave to file a bill asking an injunction against the State of Texas, restraining the state from the quarantine which has recently been established against New Orleans. The Louisiana authorities hold that the quarantine is an embargo on interstate traffic, and is therefore a matter for congress to deal with, and not a matter which can be regulated by the state government. Lawyers say that the precedents are against the Louisiana contention, and that it has long been a recognized right for the state authorities in emergencies like a yellow fever epidemic, to prevent the spread of the disease into their own limits, and to place a quarantine, embargo or what ever it may be called, against traffic from another State where the disease is raging.

The Texas delegation here is composed of Hon. T. S. Smith, attorney general of Texas; Mr. R. H. Ward, assistant attorney general, and Dr W. F. Blount, state health officer. The latter gentleman is well known in this section of the country, having been formerly a physician of Petersburg, Va., but for many years he has been among the best known citizens of Galveston, Tex.

Among well known southern men in Washington Sunday morning was Mr. John S. Cuningham, of North Carolina. Colonel Cuningham, who is stopping at the Hotel Normandie, is said to be the largest tobacco grower in the state. He has been prominently mentioned as a possible democratic candidate for gove nor to succeed Governor Russell, and he has many friends who believe him to be fully qualified for the position. He is president of the state board of agriculture and a former president of the North Carolina agricultural society.

Col. Cuningham says that in his opinion there is no doubt of the adoption of the constitutional amendment proposed by the last legislature of North Carolina limiting suffrage. The state, he says, is in a fairly prosperous condition, and has made rapid strides as a great industrial commonwealth. He says the state is now building more cotton mills than any state in the union.

The colonel will be in Washigton for only a few days, being on his way home from Boston, where he attended the farmer's national congress.

Mr. Samuel S. Buist, of Charleston, South Carolina, arrived in Washington Sunday morning. Mr. Buist is here to attend the Royal Order of Scotland (Scottish Rites) which assembles in this city this week. A banquet of the members of the order was held Monday night, which was quite largely attended. Mr. Buist will be here until Saturday of this week.

The citizens of Charleston are making a strong bid for the holding of the next conclave of the Scottish Rites in their city, and the question, as well as other important matters, are to be decided at the meeting to be held in this in this city during this week.

Senator Jones, of Arkansas, left Washington for his home Saturday afternoon, accompanied by his wife and their daughter, Mrs. Grant. The senator before leaving Washington expressed himself as being satisfied with the present political outlook. He is confident that in the elections three weeks from Tuesday that the democrats will carry all of the doubtful states, and he believes they have a good chance in many states heretofore regarded as surely republican. Among the states he counts as sure to go democratic in this year's elections are New York, Ohio, Kentucky and Maryland. He believes the party stands a good chance also in Iowa and Massachusetts, and a fair chance in Pennsylvania.

Invitations for the wedding of Representative Olmstead, of Pennsylvania, to Miss Gertrude Howard, of Lynchburg, have been received at Washington. The cards are issued by her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Blackford, of Lynchburg, and the marriage will take place from their home October 26th. After Dec. 1st, Mr. and Mrs. Olmstead will be at the Shoreham hotel, this city, where they will reside during the session of congress.

Senator Mallory, of Florida, has been appointed a member of the subcommittee of the industrial labor commission, which will on November 15th take testimony in Chicago. The subcommittee is also authorized, if they deem it necessary, to take testimony at St. Louis.

Light literature is evidently the kind the cook uses in conjunction with a can of kerosene when she wants to start up the kitchen fire.

NOTES FROM HIGH POINT.

The Local News From Our Neighbor Briefly Told.

TELEGRAM BUREAU, HIGH POINT, N. C., Oct. 16.

Ken Wilson went to Raleigh this morning.

Chas. Tilden and Clem Moore returned home Saturday night.

Mrs Ida Beeson, of Greensboro spent Sunday here with her mother.

Dr. W. G. Bradshaw left this morning to attend the state fair at Raleigh.

Wiley Rush, of Asheboro, passed turough Saturday night enroute to Concord.

C. K. Bryant, a prominent business man of Randleman, was here Saturday afternoon.

Geo. Barker came up from Thomas- Saturday evening and spent Sunday with his parents.

Rev. J. Robert Parker conducted services yesterday at Piney Woods Friends' church, near Thomasville.

Flem Norman, of Steeds, spent Sunday with his wife here, who has been visiting her mother for several weeks.

Mrs. White, who lives with the family of her son-in-law on Steele street, is quite feeble today, we are sorry to learn.

There were no services at the Methodist church last night owing to the special sermon at the Presbyterian church.

Mrs. Helan Vaughn and son left this morning for Charlotte, where they will visit before returning to their home in Augusta, Ga.

Earle Brooks spent yesterday at Michael on a very pleasant mission. He is to marry one of Davidson's fair daughters on the 25th instant.

Miss Pearl Dicks came up from Randleman this morning and will spend tonight with Miss Stella Scroggs. Both of the above named young ladies will return to their studies at G. F. College, tomorrow morning.

Rev. A. D. Thaeler, of Winston, state president Christian Endeavor societies, occupied the pulpit morning and night at the Presbyterian church yesterday. At night he made a special talk to a large audience on Christian Service among Young People, and the Relation of Young People to the Church, and vice versa. His discourse was interesting and was enjoyed by all present. Those representing the different Christian societies of the town were in attendance.

High Point is voting on the waterworks question today. A this writing it is the quietest election ever held in this city, very little interest being manifested either way. The vote polled will be very light. It only takes 320 votes—the majority of the qualified registered voters—to carry the election. From present indications the qestion will hardly be carried this time. However, it will come up again. The result of the election will be announced tonight at the mayor's office.

It was reported here late Saturday afternoon that Charles Hedgecock, who lives on the Emery Pitts place, about four miles from this city, had been thrown from a mule and killed between here and Winston. Later and more reliable reports say that Mr. Hedgecock was near Centerville when the accident occurred, and that while riding along the road the mule became frightened throwing the rider from its back on his (Hedgecock's) head. Dr. Linville, of Centerville, was summoned to attend the man. He was carried to the Winston-Salem hospital. The doctors fear his injuries will, if they have not already, prove fatal. The wounded man is a brother of John Henry Hedgecock, who lives near here, and was reported in town the morning previous to the accident. We learn that the mule he was riding was purchased from the so-called Gypsy horse traders who have been encamped near here for several days, and that it was a vicious animal.

Mr. D. H. Collins, representing "Shrier's Shoe Store," of Greensboro, N. C., will display the most beautiful and up-to-date line of men's, ladies', misses' and children's shoes at Jarrell's hotel, High Point, Tuesday, October 17th. We earnestly solicit you one and all to call and examine this beautiful line of fall shoes. No trouble to show goods, the merits of which we are sure you will appreciate. "These goods will be sold to consumer only."

Special Rates to Raleigh, N. C.

The Southern Railway Co. will sell tickets to Raleigh, N. C., and return Oct. 14, 15, 16, 17 and 20 on account of North Carolina Agricultural State Fair, rate $3.15. On Oct. 18 and 19 there will be a special low rate of $2,40 for round trip. Also special train service from Greensboro, N. C., on following schedule:

"SUFFER NOT THE OLD COOK."

It's absolutely impossible to lose the American parodist. His adaptation of his irrepressible bathos to any situation, condition or subject, however profound, or even approaching the sacred, pushes "him in anywhere," and renders him a necessary and amusing evil of these high and ridiculous times.

The man of this mind on the Baltimore American employs that latest collection of far-fetched stanzas of Kipling, entitled "Suffer Not the Old King," and which have set the English critics a-thinking, as the vehicle of his satire on this question, which is of most absorbing interest to the average Greensboro citizen, apropos of the recent exodus of large numbers of those "tyrants" of the culinary departments from our midst.

The Baltimore parodist starts out thus:

"All we have of freedom—all we use or know—
We have only had since we made the old cook go."

The Kipling poem lends itself charmingly to the theme, and he continues:

"So we bought our freedom at some little cost;
Therefore must we watch her, lest our peace be lost,
For she bossed the kitchen with a floury hand—
Suffer not the old cook, for we know the brand.

"Coffee that was muddy—pie-crust full of lard—
Pancakes that you couldn't chew—biscuits that were hard—
Beef roast that was burned to crisp—said it wouldn't do—
But the old cook answered: 'Good enough for you.'

"Sloven, sullen, savage, secret, uncontrolled—
Laying on a new meal evil of the old;
Feeding her relations from our kitchen door—
Suffer not the old cook—we want her no more.

"Called herself Aunt Dinah—said she was a "beaut"—
Suffer not the old cook—never mind
the suit
Howso' great her clamor, whatsoe'er
her claim,
Suffer not the old cook under any name.

"Here is naught unproven—here is nothing hid—
Step by step and word by word, so the old cook did.
* * * * * * * * * * *
"Now she's left the household, I can breathe again;
I am once more master—as I was not then."

"Greensboro is agitated from centre to circumference. The stomachs of the people are in open rebellion. The cause of the disturbance is a heavy exodus of sable cooks who have hied themselves northward, attracted by better wages, and, perhaps, by fitful gleams of social equality. At any rate they have packed their bags and have literally vamoosed the ranch. The places that have known them in Greensboro shall know them no more. The principle of equality of all sorts is recognized and enforced in North Carolina by the aid of Marion Butler and Jeter Pritchard and the gang. So there will be hunger and moaning in Greensboro unless they can import foreign labor. Think of 180 cooks leaving one small town."

The above-quoted paragraph is from the much esteemed Wilmington Messenger. Its all right, probably, except the last insolent sentence. We are compelled to shift the pith of the argument and state that the erudite Dr. Kingsbury's education is remarkably incomplete if he has not yet learned that Greensboro is no "small town." We have the reputation, the business, the population, the advantages and facilities and all the git-up-and-git of a city, and what is more, one of the leading ones of North Carolina, and our friends, in casually speaking of us will please observe the dignity becoming our importance.

The father of Mr. Walter F. Page, that bright North Carolinian who has won such remarkable literary distinction at the north, is critically ill at his Raleigh home, and the brilliant man of letters is at his stricken sire's bedside.

The Morning Post of yesterday says:

"The friends of Mr. Walter F. Page are pleased to see him at home again, though the immediate occasion of his coming, the serious illness of his venerable father, Mr. A. F. Page, is a sad one. Mr. Page's position in the the world of literature is as gratifying to his North Carolina people as it is honorable to himself, the more so as his achievements are the result of indomitable energy sustained by inherent earnestly and conscientiously directed capability, rather than of accident of birth, or of fortune or of influence. From his youth up, his goal has been that open space "at the top," where alone real capacity can find its unrestricted field for the highest usefulness and accomplishments. Not altogether by "patient toil," but by toil unremitting, faithful, honest, he has reached a plane to which to few even aspire, far less ever reach, one as honorable in its influence as in its attainment, or great in its opportunities.

"Mr. Page and Mr. Henry E. Shepherd are two men of whom North Carolina can always be proud."

Not the least of Private Otis' faults is his rank jealousy of the navy. Admiral Watson, in his report of the Novelta fight, says that a force of 300 marines, at the request of the army, attacked the place and carried the outposts after a hard fight in which 11 men were wounded and 50 were temporarily prostrated by heat. In Gen. Otis' report of the same action, his only reference to this assistance is this: "Navy vessels and marines at Cavite made demonstrations on Novelta yesterday." The American people will never cease their clamorings until Otis and Schley shall have had justice rendered them.

Admiral Dewey is resting on his well-earned laurels at his Vermont home, preparatory to his southern visit. During his trip south he will doubtless pass through Greensboro, and why shouldn't our people give him an ovation at the depot. A few rear-platform words from the man who gave the command in a hostile sea, "straight ahead; d—n the torpedoes!" wouldn't be at all uninteresting.

The Norfolk Landmark says:

We should not be surprised if the next report from the Transvaal will be to the effect that the Boers have cut Laing's Nek from ear to ear.

And insulted Ladysmith.

The State Fair editions of the two great Raleigh morning dailies are entirely up-to-date. Congratulations.

The Great State Fair opens tomorrow. All things are ready.

DEPARTMENT OF MUSIC.

BY J. W. TILLINGHAST.

[All communications intended for this department should be sent to J. W. Tillinghast, 415 Eugene street. All notices for publication should be handed in not later than 9 o'clock Monday.]

As stated in last Monday's Telegram, I begin today to say a few of the things I feel like saying about the possible musical development of Greensboro.

All the people who think, and have been watching the tendency of these days, know that the culture centers are moving southward. Once Boston was the objective point of those who sought much learning in America and now New York and Philadelphia are coming rapidly to the front.

Here in North Carolina the desire for higher education, the education that makes culture, is strong and yearly growing stronger. So real is this desire and so general that we are beginning to supply, to some extent, the means for its gratification.

More especially is this true in the matter of woman's education, and just at this point it is that the subject of music requires consideration, for whatever may be said about the superior ability (creation and interpretation) of the male sex, it is to woman that we must look for the shaping of the musical taste of the generations to come.

Find me a community in which there are many really musical women (I don't mean women who get up and sing a solo in church sometimes, often to the detriment of both music and religion), women who actually love music, and I will find you a community in which there is appreciation for something better than popular songs and gospel hymns. But we are sidetracked. What I started to say is that North Carolina is looking up—very much up—in the matter of education, and that it is going to require a culture centre. Why may not Greensboro be made that centre.

How this may be accomplished may not be at present very clear and it may not ever be possible to bring it about, but an effort or two in the right direction would not fail of some good results, even if the ultimate purpose is never achieved.

In the first place, there must be music in our public schools. I say must because no less forcible word expresses it. There is no hope for the development of the musical taste of a community in which the children get no musical training outside of the Sunday School and the taking of lessons on the piano. These things are well enough as far as they go, but they are altogether inadequate to the making of an appreciative effect on the culture of the town as a whole. Children must be taught to think music, and not some children, but all children—children of the poor as well as the rich. They must learn to consider the ability to understand music just as important as a knowledge of geography. The time is coming when it will be no longer very nice and satisfactory to say, "I like music, but I don't know anything about it." Because music is beginning to be recognized as the greatest of arts. It stands for the aesthetic in education, and if a people ignore it as such, they must sooner or later yield up other points in the culture line to the communities that have not so ignored it.

I do not know what the other North Carolina towns are doing in this direction, but I do know that if Greensboro is to take the position its geographical and prospective commercial importance entitles it to take in the advancement of the arts, this fountain-head of culture must be looked after.

I know that there are many people here, and especially teachers, who realize very fully the need of music in the schools. I know that it is in some degree a matter of finance, but we cannot afford to let it remain a matter of anything that keeps music out.

If we are to grow musically, we must have a musical atmosphere, which is simply a population that loves and will have music, and this can only be gotten by starting on the children. More another day.

The coming sacred concert at West Market church is to be unique in one respect (unless the management changes its mind, which Heaven forbid). There are to be no solos except those that occur as parts of the chorus numbers.

As yet there seems to be no disposition on the part of the public to help in making a success of the musical department of the Telegram. Its space is always open for news of a musical nature.

A Mother's Duty is to see to it that her children begin early in life to shampoo their heads regularly once a week. In each instance, after the hair is thoroughly dry, some mild, health-giving tonic should be applied to the scalp to aid nature in creating the best possible growth of uniformly colored, lustrous, healthy hair—the most important feature in the make-up of beautiful women and handsome men. For more than fifteen years, the has stood at the apex of all shampoo washes, while the "HAIR GROWER" has been equally successful in its efforts to return the injured scalp and almost lifeless to their original healthfulness.

NORTH CAROLINA BANKS.

Their Condition at This Time Compared With Three Months Ago.

Washington, Oct. 14—The abstract of the condition of the twenty-nine national banks in North Carolina September 17 makes an excellent showing in comparison with the former statement in June. On September 7th the banks had in loans and discounts $7,944,000 as against $7,754,000 June 30; stocks and securities, $256,000, against $263,000; due from national banks, $1,023,000, against $885,000; due from state banks, $428,000, against $345,000; due from reserve agents, $855,000, against $1,062,000; lawful money reserve, $921,000, against $973,000; surplus funds, $834,000, against $830,000; undivided profits, $422,060, against $400,000; due to other national banks, $598,000, against $312,000; due to state banks, $355,000, against $243,000; individual deposits, $7,097,000, against $7,205,000; bills payable, $90,000, against $100,000.

On September 3rd the average reserve held was 24.94 per cent.

It is the business policy of the Provident Savings to give the assured their insurance at the lowest possible cost to them, instead of building up a monumental surplus, in which they do not participate, but for the possible benefit of those who never contribute to it.—The Journal of Commerce, New York City, August 21st, 1899.

The Chicago Building Trades Council threatens to order a strike on the new Federal building there.

A Night of Terror.

"Awful anxiety was felt for the widow of the brave General Burnham, of Machias, Me., when the doctors said she could not live till morning" writes Mrs. S. H. Lincoln, who attended her that fearful night. 'All thought she must soon die from Pneumonia, but she begged for Dr. King's New Discovery, saying it had more than once saved her life, and had cured her of consumption. After three small doses she slept easily all night, and its further use completely cured her." This marvelous medicine is guaranteed to cure all throat, chest and lung diseases. Only 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at C. E. Holton's drug store.

Work has been resumed, after a long suspension, on the Hudson river tunnel, at the Jersey City terminus.

A Frightful Blunder

Will often cause a horrible burn, scald, cut or bruise. Bucklen's Arnica Salve, the best in the world, will kill the pain and promptly heal it. Cures old sores, fever sores, ulcers, boils, felons, corns, all skin eruptions. Best pile cure on earth. Only 25 cts. a box. Cure guaranteed. Sold by C. E. Holton, druggist.

During the last three months 28,351 men and 7699 women were arrested in New York.

The Reason.

"If you scour the world you will never find a remedy equal to One Minute Cough Cure," says Editor Fackler, of the Micanopy, Fla., "Hustler." It cured his family of LaGrippe and saves thousands from pneumonia, bronchitis, croup and all throat and lung troubles. Howard Gardner.

The inauguration of President Faunce, of Brown University, will take place at Providence, R. I., on Tuesday.

No Cure—No Pay.

That is the way all druggists sell Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic for Chills and Malaria. It is simply iron and quinine in a tasteless form. Children love it. Adults prefer it to bitter, nauseating tonics. Price, 50c.

REV. S. A. DONAHOE

Testifies to the Good Qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

On the 10th of December, 1897, Rev. S. A. Donahoe, pastor M. E. Church, South, Point Pleasant, W. Va., contracted a severe cold, which was attended from the beginning by violent coughing. He says: "After resorting to a number of so-called 'specifics,' usually kept in the house, to no purpose, I purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which acted like a charm. I most cheerfully recommend it to the public." For sale by C. E. Holton, Druggist.

A ten-story steel-frame hotel is to be built in the City of Mexico.

Eat plenty. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure will digest what you eat. It cures all forms of dyspepsia and stomach troubles. E. R. Gamble, Vernon, Tex., says: "It relieved me from the start and cured me. It is now my everlasting friend." Howard Gardner.

Farmer Amos Fohl, near Gardner's Station, Pa., was thrown under the wheels of his heavy wagon and killed.

President King, Farmers' Bank, Brooklyn, Mich., has used DeWitt's Little Early Risers in his family for years. Says they are the best. These famous little pills cure constipation, biliousness and all liver and bowel troubles. Howard Gardner.

An effort by New York capitalists to buy the Crocker holdings in the Pacific Improvement Company at San Francisco for $5,000,000 failed, the Crockers demanding $9,000,000.

Many Thanks.

"I wish to express my thanks to the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhœa Remedy for having put on the market such a wonderful medicine," says W. W. Massingill, of Beaumont, Tex. There are many thousands of mothers whose children have been saved from attacks of dysentary and cholera infantum who must also feel thankful. It is for sale by C. E. Holton, Druggist.

A heavy iron beam fell on William Steiner, in the Buffalo, Rochester & Pittsburg car shops, at Dubois, Pa., crushing his skull.

You assume no risk when you buy Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. C. E. Holton will refund your money if you are not satisfied after using it. It is every where admitted to be the most successful remedy in use for bowel camplaint and the only one that never fails. It is pleasant, safe and seliable.

A trolley car at Dallas, Tex., collided with an excursion train, and twenty people were injured, three fatally.

The "Plow Boy Preacher," Rev. J. Kirkman, Belle Rive, Ill., says: "After suffering from Bronchial or lung trouble for ten years, I was cured by One Minute Cough Cure. It is all that is claimed for it and more." It cures coughs, colds grippe and all throat and lung troubles. Howard Gardner.

Scrofula to Consumption.

Any one predisposed to Scrofula can never be healthy and vigorous. This taint in the blood naturally drifts into Consumption. Being such a deep-seated blood disease, Swift's Specific is the only known cure for Scrofula, because it is the only remedy which can reach the disease.

Scrofula appeared on the head of my little grandchild when only 18 months old. Shortly after breaking out it spread rapidly all over her body. The scabs on the sores would peel off on the slightest touch, and the odor that would arise made the atmosphere of the room sickening and unbearable. The disease next attacked the eyes, and we feared she would lose her sight. Eminent physicians from the surrounding country were consulted, but could do nothing to relieve the little innocent, and gave it as their opinion that the case was hopeless and impossible to save the child's eyesight. It was then that we decided to try Swift's Specific. That medicine at once made a speedy and complete cure. She is now a young lady, and has never had a sign of the disease to return.

MRS. RUTH BERKELEY,
Salina, Kan.

Scrofula is an obstinate blood disease, and is beyond the reach of the average blood medicine. Swift's Specific is the only remedy equal to such deep-seated diseases; it goes down to the very foundation and forces out every taint. It is purely vegetable, and is the only blood remedy guaranteed to contain no mercury, potash or other mineral substance whatever.

S.S.S. For The Blood

Books mailed free by Swift Specific Company, Atlanta, Georgia.

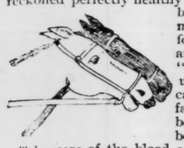
"Blood tells." But we rarely recognize the fact except in times of stress and strain. A horse which looks like a "scrub" may beat another horse which seems the ideal of a racer, just by that one quality of good blood. Similarly men, who seem in the pink of condition drop down under the racing strain of business. Why? Blood tells. Men reckoned perfectly healthy start out for business, they make a run for the train, and collapse. "Heart failure" they call it. Blood failure would be often the better name.



Take care of the blood and the body will take care of itself. It is the blood which builds the body. The blood indeed is the body. A sound body must be based on sound blood.

It is one of the peculiar properties of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery that it eliminates from the blood the effete and poisonous matter which is antagonistic to health. It also gives to the blood those elements which are necessary to its strength and vitality. Thus by the use of "Golden Medical Discovery" purity of blood and power of body have been attained by thousands of sickly and scrofulous men and women.

No other medicine purifies the blood and builds the body as does the "Discovery." Accept no substitute.

"It gives me much pleasure to testify to the merits of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery," writes Miss Annie Wells, of Fergusson's Wharf, Isle of Wight Co., Va. "I can say honestly and candidly that it is the grandest medicine ever compounded for purifying the blood. I suffered terribly with rheumatism, and pimples on the skin and swelling in my knees and feet so that I could not walk. I spent about twenty dollars paying doctors' bills but received no benefit. A year or two ago I was reading one of your Memorandum Books and I decided to try Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and 'Favorite Prescription,' and am entirely cured."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are graduated to the requirements of woman's delicate system. They regulate the stomach, liver and bowels.

Bachelors' League.

Bachelors' League! did you ever!
You men actually get worse every day,
You think you can do as you please,
And we women have nothing to say,
But I guess you are mistaken, "that's what!"
We are not to be nosed around thus;
If you don't want to marry, live single,
But we'll dress if it does raise a fuss.

We don't want to marry, I'm sure,
That is—there is time enough yet;
For you know, sir, as time passes on
A woman no older will get
But you bachelors will show your age,
Though you spruce up and try not to show it;
You can dye, wear false teeth and a wig,
But you're ancient, and we women know it

We women aren't strong, it is true,
I mean in a physical way;
What we haven't in muscle is made up in brains;
We're strong-minded and will have our way,
And sirs, let met tell you, before a great while
We'll have a big League of our own,
Then we'll show you bachelors what we can do.
When from serfdom, we rise to a throne.

Bachelors! how sorry I feel for you;
You poor, old innocent things!
You think not of the money you're spending
In billiards, tobacco and sling;
The idea has never for a moment
Got into your heads, I dare say;
It has ours, and ere we ask you to have us--
You can wait from now till doomsday.

and take your linen to a reliable laundry, that is known to be first-class in every respect, and you will never be disappointed. Experimenting with shirts, collars and cuffs, isn't a good plan, as the chemicals employed by some laundries rot the fiber. We use no chemical to injure the fiber; and we guarantee that clothes sent to our place will last longer than those sent to the average washerwoman.

A YORKSHIRE METHUSELAH.

Henry Jenkins the Oldest Englishman on Record.

The Golden Penny gives an account of a Yorkshire Methuselah, who lived to the astonishing age of 169 years. His name was Henry Jenkins, and at Bolton-on-Swale is an obelisk raised above his ashes, upon the marble face of which is told something of his career. Jenkins died in 1870, and during the latter part of his lifetime was in great demand as a witness at law in right of way and similar cases.

Details of this remarkable man's life are few. Tilling the soil and fishing in the river Swale were his chief occupations. In what we usually consider the prime of manhood he appears to have filled a rather responsible position. As he swore to the judge, he held the office as butler to Lord Conyers in the earlier part of his career and often carried messages to the Abbot of Fountains Abbey, with whom he would "drink a glass heartily." That was before the dissolution of the monasteries, which he clearly remembered. He would be 36 years of age at the time. Of other events he doubtless heard with interest. Though news traveled slowly in those days he was too much a character of the countryside not to be able to extract the latest intelligence from travelers passing through the neighborhood.

His personal survey of history would there be immense. Born before the death of Henry VII., he lived through the reigns of no fewer than nine sovereigns. He was a lad of thirteen when the Scotch were defeated at Flodden Field. He was in the fullness of manhood when Henry VI. ascended the throne. He saw the Marian persecution give place to Elizabeth's Protestant rule, and had only completed his eightieth year when beacon fires flashed the news through the country that the Spanish Armada was hastening to its doom. He saw his 103d birthday the year James I. inaugurated the rule of the Stuarts. Charles, the martyr king, lost his head, and Jenkins had still the term of a young man's majority to live. The civil wars ended. Cromwell assumed the protectorship and passed off the scene, the monarchy was restored in the person of Charles II., but not until that merry sovereign had reigned nine years did the venerable man yield to nature's inexorable demands and himself quit the stage.

University Makes a Great Football Score Against Guilford College.

Chapel Hill, N. C, Oct. 14—In the game of football here this afternoon University defeated Guilford forty-five to nothing. In the first half—twenty minutes—three touchdowns and two goals; second half, five touchdowns and three goals. Last half called six minutes before time was up, to allow Guilford to catch a train. The visitors used guards-back formation and played good ball, Cowles playing the strongest game. For University Captain Shull's long run of eighty-five yards for touchdown, Koehler's good playing at half, Graves' punting and Bellamy's run for touchdown, were features, while the whole team played steady and hard ball.

Horner's School arrived tonight and will line up against University eleven Monday.

Ely's School
OF
Book-keeping, Business and Ornamental Penmanship and Shorthand.

For Both Sexes.

READ CAREFULLY.

PROF. V. THEO. ELY,
(12 Years Experience in Teaching)

Graduate from Rochester Business University, Rochester, N. Y., will open up a select school in Both Double and Single Entry Book-keeping, Shorthand and Muscular Movement Business Writing, at the Brockmann School of Music Hall, beginning from 9 till 11 a. m., also a separate night school from 7:00 till 9:00 for those who cannot attend in day time. No extra tuition for combining both periods.

Monday, November 13, 1899,

Tuition in both writing and book-keeping combined, full course, $10.00; writing alone, strictly slant, $3.00. Payable at the expiration of the term.

Success is guaranteed to all who attend regularly and apply themselves, or no charge will be made for tuition.

Term will continue until completed, which requires from six to eight weeks.

If you ever expect to learn book-keeping or to write a good hand, now is your time.

No tuition is paid till the term closes, and the term does not close till all have finished the book-keeping course, and each student is his own judge as to when he knows it.

This fact should be taken as sufficient guarantee of safety and success. Let the pupils attend regularly and we will be responsible for the rest. No LESSONS TO STUDY AT HOME.

Stationery for full book-keeping course, including writing material, etc., not over 80 cents. Writing material, etc., furnished at the hall.

Hall will be kept warm and comfortable.

Why You Should Attend This School:

Because for $10.00 you get the same identical course in book-keeping and penmanship that you would get at any commercial college at from $150 to $250. Because you complete the course before you pay tuition. Because every subject is taught from the blackboard without the use of a text book. Because every other branch except book-keeping and writing, is excluded, making it possible to complete the course in from six to eight weeks.

Because we, the undersigned pupils, have just finished Prof. Ely's course in book-keeping and writing at Nicholson's Hall, Union, S. C., and freely testify to the fact that truly he offers a chance of a lifetime to learn these important branches of business education:

H. E. Mabry, W. C. Hames, Webster Gregory, W. H. West, W. C. Smith, J. O. Babb, F. C. Posey, J. T. Hawkins, James L. Hawkins, George Witherspoon, T. J. Betenbaugh (county supervisor), J. F. Powell, J. G. Farr.

UNION, S. C.

We take pleasure in saying that PROF. V. THEO. ELY has commended himself to us as a first-class gentleman in every sense of the word and worthy of anyone's confidence, both socially and professionally:

J. H. Hamilton, M. D.; F. B. Culp, Chief Police; J. G. Going, M. D; L. S. Townsend, Merchant; Geo. Munro, Cashier Merchants' and Planters' Bank; J. G. Farr, County Auditor; H. G. Bailey, Merchant; F. M. Whitlock, Chairman County Board of Control; The Williamson Co., Jewelry; J. L. Hicks, Superintendent Union Cotton Mills.

Auction Sale
Of Lots for This Year.

The Central Land Company will offer for sale at Public Auction, on Tuesday, Oct. 17, 1899,

Thirty nice Lots on the Vanbockelin property. These lots are 100 feet front by 200 feet deep, all shaded by beautiful oak and hickory trees. The elevation of these lots gives a splendid view of the city and no finer location for suburban homes can be found around Greensboro. No by-bidding allowed. Every lot to be sold on its merits.

Terms, one-third cash, balance in 6 and 12 months.

If you buy one of these lots you can get nearly enough wood off of it to last you through the winter—nearly enough to pay for the lot.

Puts Calls

BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

R. W. White, of the firm of J. J. White & Sons, Ore Hill, was in the city today.

John M. Tyson, of Southern Pines, spent last night at the Allen and returned home today.

L. Epps, who was arrested for the theft of cloth, as announced Saturday, was given a hearing this morning and bound over to court in a bond of $500, which he failed to give and is in jail.

McClamroch Bros. have just begun the work of putting the tile flooring in the new Grissom building. This statement is a sufficient guarantee that the work will be well done and of handsome design.

Lieutenant D. J. Gilmer returned last night from Jefferson Barracks, Mo., and will go to Durham, Fayetteville, Wilmington, Newbern and Oxford to recruit for the 49th Infantry United States Troops.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. L. Van Noppen had their little son, who is just three months old, baptized yesterday at the First Presbyterian church. He was christened Donnell Van Noppen, a combination of the two family names.

TWO BURGLARIES

Last Night at Siler City—Safe Blown Open.

Mr. B. N. Mann, of Siler City, was in the city today. He informs us that two burglaries occurred last night at Siler City. Entrance was secured to the Farmers' Alliance store, conducted by R. C. Siler. The safe was blown open, and a small amount of money taken therefrom. Thieves also broke into Lambe & Teague's store, appropriating a considerable amount of shoes, clothing, and other merchandise, but no cash.

No definite clue to the robbers has been discovered, though two suspects have been arrested.

New Railroad Nearly Completed.

The Lawndale Railroad will be completed in something over two weeks, and trains will be running through from Shelby to Lawndale regularly every day. The grading is nearly finished and the cross-ties and rails are laid for several miles. The force of hands are putting down the rails at a speed of three-fourths of a mile a day. The "levelling" or "surfeiting" process requires considerable time.

The new locomotive engine will arrive this week, and the cars will be completed, ready for the road in a few days.

Stinging, Burning Feet

Can be done away with by wearing our "Foot-Form" shoes. You will never know what real comfort is until you wear a pair. We have a complete line of mens, ladies and childrens. They cost no more than shoes that don't fit. They look better, wear better and are better than other shoes that you buy at the same price. Let us fit you. We will do it properly. Our prices are the lowest. Read our ad in today's issue.

Carolina Shoe Co.
302 South Elm St.

For Youths Exclusively.

We are badly overloaded in youths' fine overcoats in sizes from 12 to 17 year sizes. They consist of fine Meltons, Kerseys, etc.; prices that ranged from $10 00 to $20 00. These must move. We have put our pencils through the original marks and they will be placed on our counters at one-half their original price. Today is the day to look. Our stock of clothing, hats, furnishings going at 60c. on the dollar. Fishblate-Katz Co., (Inc.), opposite McAdoo.

New Lumber Company.

The Telegram was informed today that Messrs. J. G. Foushee and John B. Lening, of the D. & C. Ry., have begun the erection of a big lumber mill plant at Elise, Moore county, and will operate under the name of the Elise Lumber Company. Elise is in the midst of some very fine lumber, and is at present the terminus of the Durham & Charlotte Railway.

Fine Devon Cattle.

A carload of pure Devon cattle passed through here this morning going to Raleigh for exhibition at the State fair. There were fifteen, including two fine bulls. They were from the stock farm of A. S. Worden, of Ulysses, Pa. The keeper remarked to a Telegram man that they had been out since the 12th of August, had attended a number of fairs and won first money at every one of them.

Death Near Ore Hill.

Mr. Date Crutchfield, of Winston, and his brother John Crutchfield, of Westfield, N. J., were in the city today going to Ore Hill to attend the funeral of their father, Mr. John Crutchfield, who died at his home near there yesterday. Deceased was about 71 years of age and was one of Chatham's good citizens.

Must Come South.

I see that our New England friends are returning to the Pines for the winter. Dixie can always bank on one thing—her splendid climate. Six months of the year in the New England states is spent behind storm doors and air-tight windows, with consumption as a result, while in our good Southland ten months of the year may be enjoyed under the blue canopy of the heavens and without an overcoat. The New Englanders stay indoors during these bleak months and rack their brains on new inventions and in manufacturing our products. I don't see what they are going to do when we quit sending them our cotton to make up for us. I guess they'll all have to come South.—Chapel Hill Correspondence Sanford Express.

We have just opened a fresh shipment of girls' spring heeled shoes, button and laced, with patent leather and kid tips, price $1 25 and $1 50. They are excellent shoes, fit well, look nice and wear well. All sizes from 11½ to two. Thacker & Brockmann.

MRS. J. C. TROY DEAD.

Wife of the Well Known Preacher Writer.

The Telegram is pained to learn of the death of Mrs. John C. Troy, which occurred at her home in Jonesboro yesterday. She had been ill for some time and we had hoped she was improving. We are uninformed as to the hour of her death or the arrangements for the funeral and burial.

Her death is a peculiarly sad one. Her husband, Rev. John C. Troy, is an invalid, and his faithful wife has been his mainstay, a helpmeet indeed. They were living happily—happily in spite of his affliction—in a cozy little green cot, on the prettiest street in quiet Jonesboro, where by the grace of God and the tender care of his wife, this faithful man has been writing letters and sermons which have blessed mankind. Some of these The Telegram has had the good fortune recently to give its readers.

His earthly home is now darkened. We are tempted to say that were it in our power we would lift the dark mantle and remove this cloud of sorrow from the life of our friend. But God knows best; the good wife has been taken by His dispensation. Mr. Troy has borne affliction heroically. May added strength be given him to bear this, and may he be able to say with entire submission: "Thy will be done."

People who visit our store are astonished at the low prices at which we are selling nice groceries. We simply want room for other purposes and the goods must go at some price.

King Bros.

It is the business policy of the Provident Savings to give the assured their insurance at the lowest possible cost to them, instead of building up a monumental surplus, in which they do not participate, but for the possible benefit of those who never contribute to it--The Journal of Commerce, New York City, August 21st, 1899.

James Reed Injured.

Mr. James Reed struck his leg against a cake of ice in such a manner as to bruise it severely. It became very much swollen and pained him so badly that he could not walk without the aid of crutches. He was treated by physicians, also used several kinds of liniment and two and a half gallons of whiskey in bathing it, but nothing gave it any relief until he began using Chamberlain's Pain Balm. This brought almost a complete cure in a week's time and he believes that had he not used this remedy his leg would have had to be amputated. Mr. Reed is one of the leading merchants of Clay Court House, W. Va. Pain Balm is unequalled for sprains, bruises and rheumatism. For sale by C. E. Holton, Druggist.

Every Day Grows Bigger

Day by day and week by week Bendheim's business grows. It's the result of honest merchandising. The good women folks have found us out—tried us and found us as good as our word—that not a thing has ever appeared in print over our name nor a value represented that we didn't have.

Hippodrome business goes for a while, but, like the circus, it doesn't last long.

Solid growth—big growth—success—all depend upon telling the truth and fair and square dealing.

We are very busy now, but hardly the wonder, when we are giving the best of seasonable goods at such low prices. Take for instance
